

PRESS CONTACTS:

Jillian Zebeck
Melissa LoParco
Catalyst Marketing Communications, Inc.
(203) 348-7541

CHILD GUIDANCE CENTER WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

STAMFORD, CT/November 5, 2007 – The Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut (CGC) is pleased to announce the appointment of several new members to its Board of Directors: Christopher Bradley, Jeffrey Letalien, Kenda McDonnell and Sallyan Zenko.

New Canaan resident Christopher Bradley is the audit managing partner at Deloitte & Touche, LLP in Stamford. He has spent the majority of his professional career serving clients with international operations in the manufacturing, agribusiness and consumer business sectors, including assignments in Melbourne and Geneva. Mr. Bradley received a bachelor of science degree in accounting from the University of Connecticut and a master's in business administration from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

Jeffrey Letalien of Stamford is a corporate associate with Willkie Farr & Gallagher, LLP in New York. Before joining Willkie Farr & Gallagher in May 2007, Letalien was an associate at Kelley Drye & Warren where he represented public and private companies in the firm's corporate finance and securities practice. Letalien received a bachelor of arts degree in government from Harvard University and a juris doctor degree from Georgetown University Law Center, graduating Magna Cum Laude from both institutions.

Kenda McDonnell of New Canaan is the marketing manager of Cummings & Lockwood, LLC in Stamford and a member of the firm's administrative management committee. McDonnell received a bachelor of arts degree in English from the University of Texas and is a member of the Legal Marketing Association.

Sallyan Zenko of Rowayton is the managing director, global head of event marketing and U.S. region head of communications and marketing for UBS Investment Bank in Stamford.

Before joining UBS, she worked for the U.S. Department of Energy and Salomon Brothers, Inc. in New York. Zenko received a bachelor of arts degree in American studies from Pine Manor College in Chestnut Hill, Mass. She is also a member of the Council of Protocol Executives and the Junior League of Greenwich.

The Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut is a non-profit mental health resource, serving children and teenagers in Stamford, Greenwich, Darien, and New Canaan, both self referred and through referrals from schools, courts, human service agencies, and physicians. The CGC's clinical staff of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, and marriage and family therapists work with more than 2,100 children annually, providing culturally competent and sensitive care to families representative of the rich ethnic mix of communities CGC serves. Preventative services are provided to youngsters, parents, and professionals through public education and consultation programs. Incorporated in 1954, the CGC is supported by the Connecticut Department of Children & Families, Connecticut Office of Victim Crime Services and United Ways of Greenwich, New Canaan, Western Connecticut, the Community Fund of Darien as well as generous individual, foundation, and corporate contributions.

###