

PRESS CONTACTS:

Melissa LoParco
Yuliya Kutuzava
Catalyst Marketing
(203) 348-7541

CHILD GUIDANCE CENTER ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD SLATE

STAMFORD, CT/October 1, 2008 – The Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut, a non-profit mental health resource serving children and teenagers in Stamford, Greenwich, Darien and New Canaan, has announced its new slate of officers for its Board of Directors.

Nancy E. Barton, Esq. has been named the new Board President. She has been a member of the CGC board since 2001. A resident of Old Greenwich, she is also a member of the Board of Estimate and Taxation of the Town of Greenwich.

Chris Bradley, of New Canaan, has been named a Vice President. He is a Partner at Deloitte & Touche in Stamford and has been a member of the CGC board since 2007.

Other Board officers are as follows:

- John Raffaeli, of Pound Ridge, N.Y., immediate Past President, has been named a Vice President. He is Senior Vice President of Human Resources at Thomson Reuters in Stamford.
- Jim Colica, of Greenwich, is a Vice President. He serves as the Vice President of Global Risk Management at General Electric Co. in Stamford.
- Paul Hampel, of Old Greenwich, is a Vice President. He is the President of Business Information Strategies in Old Greenwich.
- Mary Sommer, of Stamford, is a Vice President. She is Justice at Superior Court of Connecticut in Danbury.
- Donna Zalichin, of Stamford, is the Secretary. She is a consultant to non-profit agencies.
- John Crum, of New Canaan, is the Treasurer. He is the President of Indigo Asset Management, Inc. in New Canaan.

The Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut is a non-profit mental health resource, serving children and teenagers in Stamford, Greenwich, Darien and New Canaan, both self referred and through referrals from schools, courts, human service agencies, and physicians. The CGC's clinical staff of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, and marriage and family therapists work with more than 2,100 children annually, providing culturally competent and sensitive care to families representative of the rich ethnic mix of communities CGC serves. Preventative services are provided to youngsters, parents, and professionals through public education and consultation programs. Incorporated in 1954, the CGC is supported by the Connecticut Department of Children & Families, Connecticut Office of Victim Crime Service and United Ways of Western Connecticut, Greenwich, and New Canaan, The Community Fund of Darien as well as generous individual, foundation, and corporate contributions.

###