

“COME PLAY” WITH CHILD GUIDANCE CENTER AT ANNUAL GALA

STAMFORD, CT/March 20, 2007 – Inspired by the importance of play in a child’s life, “Come Play” is the theme of this year’s annual gala for the Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut (CGC). The event is being held Saturday, April 21 at 7:00 p.m. at the Western Greenwich Civic Center.

Guests are encouraged to dress in “playground chic attire,” black-tie with a twist. This might include formal ensembles mixed and matched with jeans or sneakers in order to reflect the playful and comfortable atmosphere of the evening. The event will include a cocktail reception, dinner and dancing as well as silent and live auctions.

Tickets for “Come Play” start at $250 per person, and reservations are required. All event proceeds benefit the CGC’s programs and services for children and families. For more information, please call (203) 324-6127.

The Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut is a non-profit mental health resource, serving children and teenagers in Stamford, Greenwich, Darien, and New Canaan, both self referred and through referrals from schools, courts, human services agencies, and physicians. The CGC’s clinical staff of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, and marriage and family therapists work with more than 2,000 area children annually, providing culturally competent and sensitive care to families representative of the rich ethnic mix of communities CGC serves. Preventative services are provided to youngsters, parents and professionals through public education and consultation programs. Incorporated in 1954, the CGC is supported by the Connecticut Department of Children & Families, Connecticut Office of Victim Services and United Ways of Greenwich, New Canaan and Stamford, the Community Fund of Darien as well as generous individual, foundation, and corporate contributions.
