ADOLESCENT GROUP FOR GIRLS TO ADDRESS AGE & GENDER SPECIFIC ISSUES

STAMFORD, CT/February 12, 2008 – The Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut (CGC) is currently seeking girls ages 14 to 17 for its new Girl Talk group session.

The purpose of the group is to address specific emotional and physiological issues of adolescent girls. Girl Talk will provide a safe environment where girls can openly discuss topics that might include relationships with peers and adults, dating, school work, alcohol and drug use, eating disorders and self-esteem and body image issues.

For more information, please call (203) 324-6127 to speak with Maria Gaudio, MS Ed. or Dominika Staszeczka, M.A.

About the Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut

The Child Guidance Center of Southern Connecticut is a non-profit mental health resource, serving children and teenagers in Stamford, Greenwich, Darien and New Canaan, both self referred and through referrals from schools, courts, human service agencies, and physicians. The CGC's clinical staff of psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, and marriage and family therapists work with more than 2,100 children annually, providing culturally competent and sensitive care to families representative of the rich ethnic mix of communities CGC serves. Preventative services are provided to youngsters, parents, and professionals through public education and consultation programs. Incorporated in 1954, the CGC is supported by the Connecticut Department of Children & Families, Connecticut Office of Victim Crime Service and United Ways of Western Connecticut, Greenwich, and New Canaan, the Community Fund of Darien as well as generous individual, foundation, and corporate contributions.
